BROWN FOX

DARRELL G-M NOGA IS AN EXPERIENCED TRIAL AND APPELLATE ATTORNEY with over thirty years of experience representing governmental and corporate clients, along with their individual officers and employees. He has successfully litigated a wide variety of cases, with an emphasis on governmental representation, civil rights litigation, employment litigation and labor negotiations. Mr. Noga has persuaded juries of his clients' positions in numerous state and federal courts and has also successfully argued before the Texas Supreme Court and various state and federal courts of appeal.

After obtaining his law degree from Georgetown University in Washington D.C., Darrell began his litigation practice in his hometown of Chicago, Illinois before moving to Texas. Mr. Noga's experience allows him to relate to, and communicate with, people from many different backgrounds, and such experience has been invaluable in his career as a litigator. He has long developed a reputation for approaching his clients' problems as efficiently as possible but also understands that there are times a case must be tried. In those cases Mr. Noga will bring passion and preparation to bear, along with his communication skills developed over the years, to vigorously advocate for his clients.

Mr. Noga has also been privileged to have been selected as panel counsel for the Texas Municipal League Intergovernmental Risk Pool representing thousands of Texas governmental entities and has served as such for over twenty years.
