MORE ABOUT MORGAN BULLER

Morgan is a native of East Texas and a North Dallas transplant where she now lives with her son, Kaden. Morgan followed in her father's footsteps and attended Baylor University for college. During her time at Baylor, Morgan quickly developed a love for all things Baylor Bears and attends every football game in McLane Stadium (and other sporting events when possible). Outside of work, Morgan stays busy between her son's active extracurricular activities schedule, working towards earning her MBA, and volunteering with the Junior League of Collin County. In her remaining free time, she also enjoys spending time with her family in East Texas, reading, baking, swimming, and playing with her Mini Aussie, Finn.
